“WILL GLOVER JOHNNY B GOODE”

A Tribute to the Music of Chuck Berry

Will Glover was born in North Carolina and grew up in Florida and Virginia. His strong country roots and the love for music, whether Southern Country Twang, Rhythm & Blues or Rock & Roll, was introduced to him by his uncle Joe. Joe was of great influence until his early death giving Will an ever growing thirst to perform and entertain.

Growing up in this vast music diversity, singer/songwriter Will Glover moved with his family to Southern California during his early teens. There his musical dreams began to flourish and as they say "right place at the right time".. and flourish it did!

Will's career took him into movies, television and the Billboard Charts with the 1960's group The Pyramids and their charting hit, Penetration. Will and The Pyramids performed with such great artists as The Rolling Stones, Chuck Berry, The Beach Boys, Marvin Gaye, Aaron Tippin, Ike & Tina Turner and many other rock & roll and country artists.

Now Will Glover finds himself based in Orange County – singing, writing and playing his heart felt music and pushing his new WILL GLOVER: JOHNNY B GOODE - A TRIBUTE TO THE MUSIC OF CHUCK BERRY. It's a "High Energy Rockin' Show!"

"Will continues in pushing the buttons to keep his music fresh and peaked in Perfection!"

“These days, Glover is based in Orange County and is playing his Rockin’ Country music. His polished-sound debut CD takes a shot at the heart of the Nashville’s mainstream, aiming for something akin to Travis Tritt’s hard-driving style.”

– Mike Boehm, L.A. Times

“Will Glover’s pure tenor soars over the wall. Shut your eyes and listen. What you’ll hear is one of the brightest stars in a pretty impress collection of singer/songwriters.”

– Gene Harbrect, Orange County Register
